

AWANA is fun with a purpose to reach and train kids for Jesus Christ.

AWANA: Who We Are, What We Do

Awana is a nondenominational ministry that seeks to reach children and teenagers with the gospel of Jesus Christ and train them to serve Him. Our message to churches is simple: We're here to serve the youth with a ministry that is all about fun with a purpose – to win and grow kids for Christ!

Foundational teaching

Bible-centered handbooks and club activities help children being to build a solid understanding of the basics of Christianity at an early age.

AWANA is tailored to children and youth of different age groups:

Cubbies – Ages 3 (potty train) – K
Sparks – Grades 1st - 2nd
Truth & Training (T&T) – Grades 3rd - 5th
Trek – Grades 6th – 8th
Journey – Grades 9th – 12th

The Awana Ministry at Kettering Baptist church invites youth, ages 3 -18, to join us – even if you aren't a member of KBC:

When: Wednesday nights, 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
(Starting September 11, 2019)

Where: Kettering Baptist Church
6909 Crain Highway
Upper Marlboro, MD 20772

Cost: $25 per person

For more information, please contact AWANA Commander Min. Colin Pugh @ 301-627-9500 ex116 or Colin.Pugh@Ketteringministries.org