Esther (Part 2)

Esther is a book about how God causes His people to triumph in troubled times. It lets us see how God can take someone from obscurity and raise them up to be in a position for “such a time as this.” This study is a verse by verse exposition that shows us how Esther becomes the Bride of the King and is in that position when it seems everything is falling apart. God is at work in the midst of the trouble working through Esther to cause what was falling apart, to fall into place. 5 Week Course
